PAM'S POST

The word Halloween has evolved from Hallowe'en. In turn, this whimsical word is shorthand for “hallowed evening,” and refers specifically to All Hallows' Eve. All Hallows' Eve is a celebration of ghosts, goblins and the only day of the year that it is okay to be a witch! Looking forward to the Thursday, October 24 Woman's Club Member Luncheon, when all us witches can try our hand at crafting! Oh, what fun!

NEWS & UPCOMING EVENTS

UPCOMING FUNDRAISERS:

On November 23rd we will hold a Christmas Bazaar at Sacred Heart Church. It is our intention to include a craft table and a bake table to sell at this Bazaar. We need volunteers (crafty ones or not so crafty) to help make the crafts. Nothing too complicated but very cute.

Besides the holiday craft table, we invite you to bring any items in the following categories: fashion accessories or jewelry, gently used designer purses, holiday and home décor (new or almost new—no HEAVY items), and items for the Chinese auction such as handmade items, gift cards from a business, a ticket to an event or any new items you wish to donate. We will be collecting those items at our September and October meetings, or you may drop them off at Rita Wanner's garage in the Villas in Linfield. Her garage code is 7480.

Sign up sheets will be on the tables at the luncheon for:

Volunteers to help make crafts for the Bazaar

Volunteers to bake for a bake sale table at the Bazaar

Set up and clean up schedule for the bazaar will be announced.

November 5th from 4 PM to 10 PM "Dine to Donate" at Outback Steakhouse. See attached flyer for details. Please print the flyer and present it to your server. 10% of your total food purchase will be donated to our club.

Bingo: March 22, 2025 at Friendship Fire Hall on Green Street in Royersford.
